OHIO INSPECTOR GENERAL FINDS TWO PAROLE OFFICERS ACTED BEYOND THEIR AUTHORITY
Columbus, Ohio, December 18, 2013

The inspector general issued a report of investigation finding two employees of the Ohio Adult Parole Authority, a division of the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction, acted beyond the scope of their authority.

The two Dayton-based Ohio parole officers committed wrongful acts by detaining an individual who did not have an open warrant, but was neither a parolee in violation of parole, nor under supervision of the Ohio Adult Parole Authority. The individual detained was later taken into custody by the City of Dayton Police Department.
